

Accountable organization

assigns and resources the roles · maintains escalation and reopening · remains answerable for product consequences

