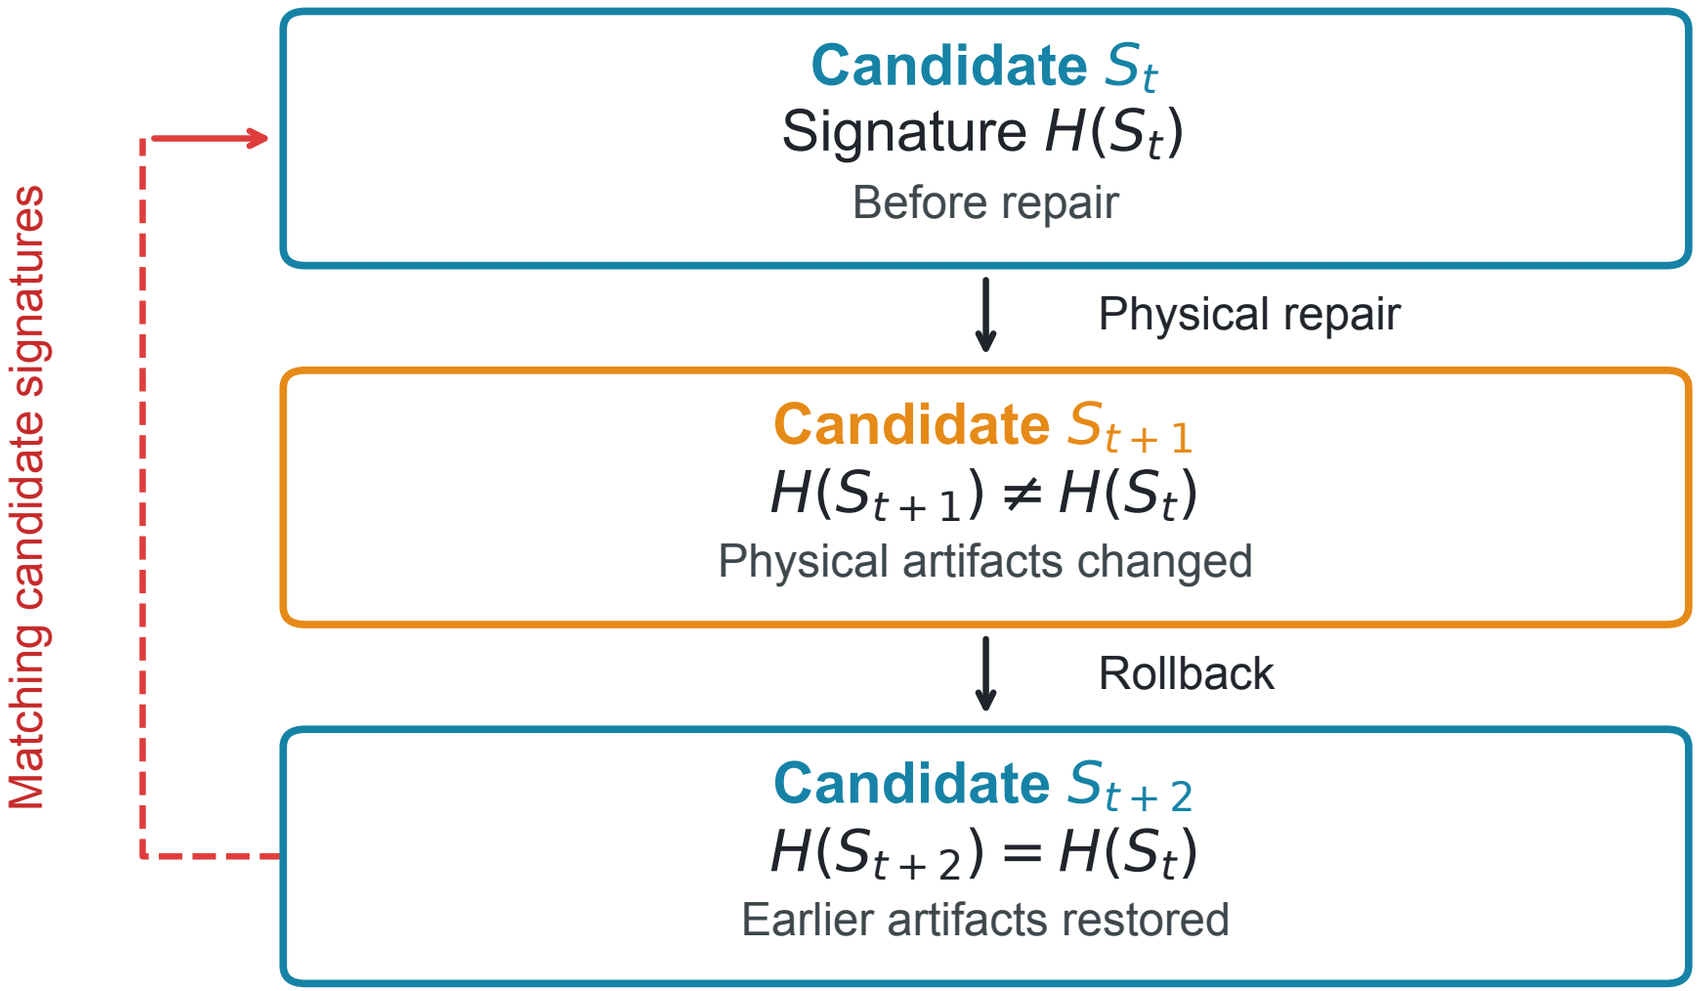
A rollback restores the earlier candidate



Signature inputs: canonical netlist, placement/routing database, and effective loaded constraints.

Before retrying: check tool configuration, random state, policy state, and action history. A candidate match alone does not establish a workflow cycle.